

1. The outcome of this battle was made possible by the comte de Grasse's victory in the Battle of the Chesapeake, which made the British unable to lift the siege led by Rochambeau and Washington. For 10 points, name this last major battle of the Revolutionary War that saw Cornwallis surrender to Washington.
ANSWER: Battle of Yorktown [or Siege of Yorktown]

121-11-52-10101

2. One person in this profession used Galveston Island as a base and came to Andrew Jackson's assistance at the Battle of New Orleans. Another of these people, born Edward Teach, commanded the Queen Anne's Revenge until his 1718 death. For 10 points, Jean Laffite and Blackbeard were what kind of seagoing criminals?
ANSWER: pirates [or buccaneers; or privateers]

019-11-52-10102

3. This show featured several appearances by Kathryn Card as the title character's mother, Mrs. McGillicuddy, who believed that another lead character was named "Mickey Richardson." William Frawley and Vivian Vance played the Mertzes, landlords and friends of Ricky Ricardo on, for 10 points, what 1950s sitcom starring Lucille Ball?
ANSWER: I Love Lucy

019-11-52-10103

4. This man was accompanied by the Pinzon brothers. This man named the first island he found San Salvador after landing with the Nina, Pinta, and Santa Maria. An apocryphal legend holds that Queen Isabella pawned her jewelry to pay for this man's first voyage. For 10 points, name this Genoese explorer who sailed the ocean blue in 1492.
ANSWER: Christopher Columbus

015-11-52-10104

5. This former country had a government-in-exile led by Edvard Benes. The Munich Pact allowed Germany to annex party of this former country called the Sudetenland. This country had a Velvet Revolution and ceased to exist in the Velvet Divorce. For 10 points, name this former country in which the 1968 Prague Spring occurred.
ANSWER: Czechoslovakia [do not accept or prompt on "Slovakia" or the "Czech Republic"]

030-11-52-10105

6. This program was named by Richard Goodwin and announced in speeches at the University of Miami in Ohio and in Ann Arbor. The Head Start program was one part of it, along with the War on Poverty and the Voting Rights Act. For 10 points, identify this set of economic and social reforms passed by Lyndon Johnson.
ANSWER: Great Society

048-11-52-10106

7. This man had a vision in which he saw soldiers falling like grasshoppers from the sky after performing the Ghost Dance. He gained worldwide fame for traveling on Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. His vice-chief was Crazy Horse. For 10 points, name this Dakota Indian chief who led the Sioux to victory over General Custer at the Battle of Little Bighorn.
ANSWER: Sitting Bull [or Tatanka Iyotake]

030-11-52-10107

8. This politician signed a document agreeing to return Hong Kong to China in 1997. One assassination attempt on this leader was the Brighton Hotel Bombing. A large coal miners' strike occurred during this leader's rule. This politician fought the Falklands War. For 10 points, name this Prime Minister of Great Britain who was nicknamed the "Iron Lady."

ANSWER: Margaret Thatcher

141-11-52-10108

9. One painting from this country depicts three philosophers with different reactions to tasting vinegar. Its artistic genres include bird-and-flower painting and calligraphy written in ink. For 10 points, name this modern-day country where the Terracotta Army was discovered.

ANSWER: People's Republic of China [or Zhongguo; or the Middle Kingdom]

080-11-52-10109

10. This work was written at the home of the Van Rensselaer family by an army surgeon named Richard Shackburg. Connecticut adopted this work as its official state song in which the titular figure goes with his father "down to camp / Along with Captain Gooding." For 10 points, name this American folk song whose titular figure "stuck a feather in his hat / And called it macaroni."

ANSWER: "Yankee Doodle"

130-11-52-10110

1. Ken Wyatt is the first member of this group to be elected to the legislature. Whitlam created a Royal Commission to grant land rights to these people. Several of these people were removed from their families in the Stolen Generations. For 10 points, name these people who find Ayers Rock sacred and are the native people of Australia.

ANSWER: Australian aborigines

048-11-52-10101

BONUS: What Australian Prime Minister refused to apologize to the aborigines and served from 1996 until 2007 when he was replaced by Kevin Rudd?

ANSWER: John Winston Howard

052-11-52-1010-1

2. His late poem “The Flood of Life” reflected similar themes as an earlier work about one who “lies down to pleasant dreams.” This anti-Jeffersonian poet of “The Embargo” titled that “meditation on death” “Thanatopsis.” For 10 points, name this early American poet of “To a Waterfowl.”

ANSWER: William Cullen Bryant

019-11-52-10102

BONUS: What man praised Bryant in the essay “The Poetic Principle” and also wrote the poem “Annabel Lee?”

ANSWER: Edgar Allan Poe

052-11-52-1010-1

3. Immediately before this battle, William Halsey suffered a bout of psoriasis, leading him to be replaced by Raymond A. Spruance. The JN-25 code was broken before this battle, during which the Enterprise and Hornet emerged victorious over the Kaga and Akagi. For 10 points, name this 1942 allied naval victory in World War II.

ANSWER: Battle of Midway

048-11-52-10103

BONUS: What battle, one month before the Battle of Midway, was the first naval engagement between aircraft carriers?

ANSWER: Battle of Coral Sea

080-11-52-1010-1

4. This president chose not to intervene in Dorr’s Rebellion. Several members of his cabinet died during the USS Princeton explosion. This President signed the Webster-Ashburton treaty. He was called “His Accidency” due to his succession. For 10 points, name this President who succeeded William Henry Harrison.

ANSWER: John Tyler

048-11-52-10104

BONUS: When Tyler ran as William Henry Harrison’s running mate, what image did the Whig campaign pair with “hard cider” to present Harrison as a common man?

ANSWER: log cabin

052-11-52-1010-1

5. John Hawkins introduced this product to England, where James I wrote a “counterblast” against its use. John Rolfe became America’s first magnate in this product, which was first grown at large plantations in Virginia. For 10 points, identify this plant used to make snuff, dip, cigars, and cigarettes.

ANSWER: tobacco [or Nicotiana tabacum]

019-11-52-10105

BONUS: What Englishman popularized tobacco and also sponsored a failed colony that mysteriously disappeared at Roanoke Island?

ANSWER: Sir Walter Raleigh

052-11-52-1010-1

6. This emperor passed the Patent of Toleration that allowed religious freedoms for non-Catholics and introduced compulsory education in German rather than Latin. For 10 points, name this eighteenth century Holy Roman Emperor, a son of Maria Theresa who was called an "enlightened" monarch.

ANSWER: Joseph II [prompt on Joseph]

135-11-52-10106

BONUS: Upon Joseph II's death, he was succeeded by this man, his younger brother.

ANSWER: Leopold II [prompt on Leopold]

135-11-52-1010-1

7. One philosopher in this movement wrote the essays “The Fixation of Belief” and "How to Make Our Ideas Clear." One member of this movement advocated progressive education reform in Democracy and Education. For 10 points, C.S. Peirce, John Dewey, William James belonged to what school of philosophy, which took its theory from practice?

ANSWER: pragmatism

140-11-52-10107

BONUS: What Spanish-American author of The Life of Reason and Scepticism and Animal Faith is sometimes considered a pragmatist, and warned about history repeating itself?

ANSWER: George Santayana [or Jorge Agustin Nicolas Ruiz de Santayana y Borrás]

052-11-52-1010-1

8. This politician gave a series of speeches about the Ottoman atrocities during his Midlothian campaign. This man served as Prime Minister four separate times and was 84 during his final ministry, both records within British politics. For 10 points, name this Liberal Prime Minister who frequently quarreled with Benjamin Disraeli.

ANSWER: William Ewart Gladstone

052-11-52-10108

BONUS: Gladstone started an association to help women who worked in this profession find new jobs.

ANSWER: prostitution [or word forms or synonyms]

020-11-52-1010-1

FLAGS

Name the following things related to flags in American history:

1. Song written about the flag by Francis Scott Key.

ANSWER: "The Star-Spangled Banner"

2. Seamstress credited with making the first U.S. flag.

ANSWER: Betsy Ross

3. State that has been governed by "six flags."

ANSWER: Texas

4. Island where Marines raised the flag in famous 1945 photo.

ANSWER: Iwo Jima

5. Phrase placed with a rattlesnake on the Marines' Gadsden Flag.

ANSWER: "don't tread on me"

6. Nickname for first Confederate flag, with a circle and three stripes.

ANSWER: "stars and bars"

7. Only state which still displays the Confederate battle flag on its state flag.

ANSWER: Mississippi

8. Single-starred West Florida flag adopted and sung about by the Confederacy.

ANSWER: Bonnie Blue flag

019-11-52-1010-1

NEWSPAPERS

Which newspaperman...

1. Inspired Citizen Kane through his management of The New York Journal?

ANSWER: William Randolph Hearst

2. Is the namesake of a journalism prize?

ANSWER: Joseph Pulitzer

3. Escaped slavery in Maryland before advocating abolition in The North Star?

ANSWER: Frederick Douglass

4. Said “go west young man” as editor of the New York Tribune?

ANSWER: Horace Greeley

5. Advocated abolition and women’s suffrage in his paper The Liberator?

ANSWER: William Lloyd Garrison

6. Was defended by Andrew Hamilton in a 1734 libel trial that cemented freedom of the press?

ANSWER: John Peter Zenger

7. Edited the pro-Federalist paper American Minerva in addition to publishing a dictionary?

ANSWER: Noah Webster

8. Was killed by an Illinois mob for publishing the abolitionist Alton Observer?

ANSWER: Elijah Parish Lovejoy

015-11-52-1010-1

1984 ELECTION

Name these people and phrases from the 1984 U.S. Presidential election:

1. Republican re-elected in a landslide.

ANSWER: Ronald Wilson Reagan

2. Former Carter VP who was Democratic nominee.

ANSWER: Walter Mondale

3. Illinois civil rights leader who challenged for nomination.

ANSWER: Jesse Jackson

4. 1972 loser to Nixon who tried to run again.

ANSWER: George McGovern

5. 1936 Republican loser to FDR who was only candidate to suffer worse landslide.

ANSWER: Alf Landon

6. Former astronaut and Ohio Senator who sought nomination.

ANSWER: John Glenn

7. Colorado Senator who left race after being caught in affair.

ANSWER: Gary Hart

8. Wendy's slogan used to great effect in Democratic primary.

ANSWER: "Where's the Beef?"

019-11-52-1010-1

1. After this man's son was arrested for assaulting hotel staff, he threatened to declare war on Switzerland (+). The Lockerbie bomber was repatriated to this man's country. A no-fly zone was announced during this man's (*) civil war against rebels based in Benghazi. After a raid on Sirte, this man was killed on October 20. For 10 points, name this long-time leader of Libya.

ANSWER: Muammar Muhammad Abu Minyar al-Gaddafi [or Kaddafi; or Qaddafi]

020-11-52-10101

2. One of these structures, built by Numa, had a set of gates which were closed only when peace prevailed throughout (+) Roman lands. Another one of these structures was a wonder of the ancient world found at (*) Ephesus. For 10 points, the Pantheon, dedicated to all the gods, was what kind of Roman religious building?

ANSWER: Roman temples [or temples of Janus before “Ephesus” is read; or templum; or templa]

019-11-52-10102

3. This man was chosen to succeed General Sanjuro during one war that saw him exiled to the Canary Islands. (+) That war saw this man lead one siege that resulted in Mola coining the term the “Fifth Column.” This man promised Juan Carlos that he would succeed him after joining the (*) Carlists with the Falange. For 10 points, name this Generalissimo of Spain during World War II.

ANSWER: Francisco Franco y Bahamonde

149-11-52-10103

4. The first leader of this colony after it had gained its independence was Jean-Jacques Dessalines. The revolution that led to the independence of this colony was started at a (+) voodoo ceremony led by Dutty Boukman. This colony was the first in Latin America to become (*) independent. For 10 points, name this French colony in which a slave revolt was led by Toussaint Louverture.

ANSWER: Haiti [or Saint-Domingue]

066-11-52-10104

5. The Levellers was a political movement in this conflict that included the Battle of Marston Moor and the (+) Battle of Naseby. The red coat uniform first appeared in this conflict for the (*) New Model Army. For 10 points, name this seventeenth century conflict between Cavaliers who supported King Charles I and Roundheads who supported Oliver Cromwell.

ANSWER: English Civil War

064-11-52-10105

6. In this battle, Joshua Chamberlain’s Maine infantry led a bayonet charge at Little Round Top.(+) The end of this battle came shortly after the failure of a charge on Cemetery Ridge (*) led by George Pickett. For 10 points, name this three day 1863 battle in Pennsylvania often considered the “high water mark” of the Confederacy.

ANSWER: Battle of Gettysburg

141-11-52-10106

7. Rose Mary Woods claimed it was a “terrible mistake” to erase parts of audio tapes discussing this (+)scandal. Eliot Richardson resigned after refusing to fire the man investigating this scandal in what became known as the (*) “Saturday Night Massacre.” For 10 points, name this break-in uncovered by Woodward and Bernstein that led to Richard Nixon's resignation.

ANSWER: Watergate Scandal [or Watergate break-in]

121-11-52-10107

8. The commander of this event stipulated that it should occur thirty minutes after breaking off peace negotiations, to give fair warning. This event occurred on (+) "a date that will live in infamy" according to a speech by (*) FDR. During this event the USS Arizona was sunk. For 10 points, name this Japanese attack on an American naval base in Hawaii.

ANSWER: attack on Pearl Harbor

066-11-52-10108

One painting from this country depicts three philosophers with different reactions to tasting vinegar. Its artistic genres include bird-and-flower painting and calligraphy written in ink. For 10 points, name this modern-day country where the Terracotta Army was discovered.

ANSWER: People's Republic of China [or Zhongguo; or the Middle Kingdom]

149-11-52-1010-1

BONUS: What Hawthorne novel concerns the Pyncheon family and their ancestral residence?

ANSWER: The House of the Seven Gables

015-11-52-1010-1